The University of Passau owes its strong visibility and good repute to excellent research, innovative teaching and its tight-knit international academic networks. Some 12,000 students from 100 countries and more than 1,300 staff study and work on our University campus, which is located a stone’s throw from the historical Old Town of Passau and combines state-of-the-art technical infrastructure with award-winning architecture. Internationally successful high-tech companies and a vibrant start-up scene, coupled with a rich culture and Lower Bavarian traditions, give Passau and the surrounding area a special appeal that makes it a great place to live and work.

The Chair of Economic Theory at the University of Passau (Chair holder: Professor Graf Lambsdorff) has three vacancies to be filled from May to August 2022. The workload is 27 hours per month, remunerated at an hourly wage of currently 12.50 euros.

Research Assistant

In this role, you will assist in the selection process for the M.Sc. International Economics and Business degree programme. This involves carrying out a preliminary evaluation of the applications received and preparing selection interviews. The three research assistants will form a team in which you will each specialise in countries/regions of origin of applicants’ qualifications and in technical issues relating to the implementation of online procedures. Candidates for this job must have completed their undergraduate degree. Furthermore, we expect very good English language skills, a high level of motivation and the ability to work independently.

The University of Passau wishes to increase the proportion of its female staff and expressly encourages women to apply for the position. This position is suitable for candidates who are registered disabled. Persons with disabilities are given preference over non-disabled applicants who do not otherwise have statutory preferential status if their overall personal aptitudes, skills and qualifications are equal.

To apply, you only need to send us your curriculum vitae and a current HISQIS statement. Please send these documents to Dominik.Ulke@uni-passau.de by 15 February 2022. E-mailed applications are kept on file for six months after the conclusion of the hiring process, whereupon they are deleted from our systems.
