

Leaflet Studying as a Parent Award
(Prize for the best graduates with a child)

(February 2023)

The University of Passau awards the "Studying as a Parent Award" (Studieren-mit-Kind-Preis) once per semester at all faculties.

With this award, the University of Passau honours the best students with child/children in each faculty who have successfully completed their studies. In this way, the University of Passau recognises the special commitment of student parents who have managed to combine raising children with successful studies.
