Manipal – the University citadel

Manipal is a suburb and university town within Udupi district in coastal Karnataka, India. The town that was once a barren hillock is transformed into a University town leaving its mark on the global arena since 1953. Manipal Academy of Higher Education hosts students from more than 70 nationalities studying on campus. MAHE stands tall among private universities in the country for providing value-based quality education to its students with state-of the art facilities to embrace and sustain its vision for holistic growth to reality. Manipal's scenic beauty adds to the panoramic view of attractive coastlines on the Arabian Sea to the West and the Western Ghats with lush green habitat to the East. Picturesque locations, coastal cuisine, local culture all in the lap of nature are calling you to come and experience the serenity with a blend of experiential academic learning with these four programs! Welcome to Manipal.
