The AEI-ASEM Summer School is an ongoing initiative to enhance the balanced mobility of students, researchers and academics between Asia and Europe in line with one of the decisions of ASEMME 4 in May 2013, Kuala Lumpur.

This year's AEI-ASEM Summer School will be a ten-day programme consisting of a series of lectures and relevant field trips to focus on various topics of interest, to generate conversation and ideas amongst participants in understanding the challenges we face globally.

Date: 29 July 2024 – 07 August 2024

Theme: Global Citizenship: Embracing Diversity, Fostering Sustainability

Location: Asia-Europe Institute, Universiti Malaya, Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia

Activities: Lecture Modules, Group Activities, Field Trips and Reflective Reports

Target Participants

- Youths from Asia and Europe.
- Ages 18 to 30 years old.
- Currently enrolled or planning to enroll in studies at public or private higher education institutions.
- Open to undergraduate, graduate, and Ph.D. students.
- Participants should have the ability to understand and respect cultural differences.
- Participants are expected to have a profound interest in global issues.

At the End of this course, participants will be able to:

- Compare and distinguish issues that act as barriers to sustainable and social development;
- Identify the benefits of technology and digital innovation as sustainable practices for the future;
- Explore the diversity of global experiences in addressing contemporary social and developmental issues.

Participation Fee:

Only USD 900 per person. The fee includes all local costs associated with the programs, such as accommodation, meals, transportation, and lectures. Return airfare, visa fees, and travel insurance are not covered.

How to register:

Step 1: Register your details at <https://aei.um.edu.my/ss2024>

Step 2: The organizer will review your application and, if you are selected, you will receive payment instructions via the email address you provided.
